

2016 Junior Charger Girls

Benefiting the Chargers Community Foundation and the Make-A-Wish Foundation

THE GAME PLAN ...

Be a part of the 2016 Junior Charger Girls. Young women ages 7-15 will have the opportunity to perform in front of 65,000+ fans at the Chargers home game on December 4th against Tampa Bay.

THE BENEFIT ...

Not only will you learn from the NFL's Best Cheerleaders, you'll be raising money to help thousands of San Diegans in need. Each performer must raise $175 in sponsor pledges. The money raised will help support the Make-A-Wish Foundation and the Chargers Community Foundation. The pledge minimum is required by November 19th to participate in the halftime show.

THE PLAYERS ...

Young women ages 7-15. If you have a lot of energy and like to have fun, then this is for you. You do not have to be a cheerleader to participate. All it takes is energy and a smile. The Charger Girls will teach you the rest!

THE "KICK-OFF" REHEARSAL ...

LETS ALL "Make-A-Wish" COME TRUE ...

Make-A-Wish is dedicated to granting the special wishes of children between 2 1/2 and 18 years of age who suffer from life-threatening illnesses. Make-A-Wish believes all children deserve both hope and happiness. Wishes provide a welcome respite from the stress that illnesses place on children and their families, and create lasting, precious memories for the future.

CHARGERS COMMUNITY FOUNDATION ...

The Chargers Community Foundation assists many causes critical to our community. Whether it's providing over $2 million dollars in fitness grants to schools or scholarships through the Chargers Champions program or helping the less fortunate every week through the homeless outreach program, the San Diego Chargers are ready to reach out a helping hand. The Foundation's major focus is on programs and issues affecting the youngest members of our community.

BONUS PRIZES ...

To make fundraising easy, pledge sheets will be given to each participant. If you raise over $175, you can get some exciting prizes. *Grand Prize: The top four Junior Charger Girls who raise the most money will have the opportunity to cheer on the field with the Charger Girls on December 4th for the entire game.
